

“Back to Basics – GMP”

Current Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) Training Course

Saturday May 30, 2009 (Spanish) 8:30AM – 4:30PM

This Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP) training course will come from the regulatory and industry perspective. It will cover the federal Good manufacturing practices regulations (CFR 21 Part 110). It will give you insight to maintain compliance with the federal regulations for your facilities

* * * * *

"SSOP Monitoring Training"

Sanitation Standard Operating Procedures (SSOP) Training Course

Saturday: June 27, 2009 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

This Sanitation Standard Operating Procedures (SSOP) training course will come from the regulatory and industry perspective. It will cover the federal guidelines for monitoring sanitation for HACCP programs and general sanitation monitoring for compliance. It will give you insight to maintain compliance with the federal regulations and third party audits for your facilities.

ALL CLASSES HELD AT: Cal Poly Pomona Student Activities Center – England Evans Room

Presented By

Mas Hori (Retired CA DHS FDB Investigator) & Associates

Who Should Enroll?

Business owners, senior officers, QA/QC managers, and production supervisors. Line production workers will also benefit from this training

Benefits:

Understanding of regulatory agencies' compliance and improve knowledge of Good Manufacturing principles

Cost: $150 per student for FIBR Members $170 per student for Non FIBR Members

Cost Includes Continental Breakfast, Course Manual & Certificate of Completion Parking Free

Registration Form (Class limited to 25 students.)

Name: _____

Company: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ Zip: _____

Telephone: () _____ Fax Number: () _____

Check Class Registering For: GMP(Spanish) May 30th SSOP June 27th

Use Separate Form for Each Registered Student or Attach List

Mail Checks To: Mas Hori PO Box 1007, South Pasadena, CA 91031

Contact number: (626) 241-7476 (Cell) for questions?